Sandra Costa International Interior Design Celebrity

The absolute highlight and truly the Bets of the Best this Oscar Season was world-renowned Celebrity Interior Designer, Sandra Costa, who is the gateway to building one of a kind custom designed real estate properties, not only for mega stars, and international business icons, but also restaurants and other public estates. Just one of her recent projects included designing a large number of extraordinary Japanese restaurants, and making custom furniture for one of America's biggest names in the technology driven Silicon Valley. She is not only a celebrity in her own right, a woman of her own, but is greatly admired for her multi-talent that ranges from furniture manufacturing to complex designs of all kinds including sound engineering. Sandra Costa is indeed the biggest International celebrity in Interior Design.

Sandra Costa has also been invested in the world-recognized and oldest Order in existence, Constantine the Great and of Saint Helen that takes us back all the way to 312 AD and has received her title Lady/Dame, which is truly the biggest honor and recognition in one's life.

Interior Designer, Sandra Costa, who is the gateway to building one of a kind custom designed real estate properties, not only for mega stars, and international business icons, but also restaurants and other public estates. Just one of her recent projects included designing a large number of extraordinary Japanese restaurants, and making custom furniture for one of America's biggest names in the technology driven Silicon Valley. She is not only a celebrity in her own right, a woman of her own, but is greatly admired for her multi-talent that ranges from furniture manufacturing to complex designs of all kinds including sound engineering. Sandra Costa is indeed the biggest International celebrity in Interior Design. All in all, this year's Oscars were the most elegant, interesting, unexpected, surprising, funny but also moving. Almost everyone teared up listening to a full stage of A-listers singing "Les Misérables" most famous song, "One Day More" live! Yet again Hollywood proved itself: no matter what happens in our hectic and ever-changing world today, Hollywood stands strong and brings us the most regal and grand presentations and universal messages that art has to offer
